Important Update: Introduction of New Bank Account for Payments

Dear Valued Customer,

We hope this message finds you well. We are writing to inform you of an important update regarding the way payments are processed at Light Guide Optics International Ltd.

As part of our ongoing efforts to optimize our financial operations and enhance the efficiency of our Cash Flow Management, we are pleased to announce that we have started a new cooperation with Swedbank, one of Sweden's most reputable and stable financial institutions.

Please Update Your Records:

To ensure a seamless transition, we kindly ask that you update your records and direct all future payments to our new Swedbank account details, effective immediately. The updated bank account information is provided below and will also be reflected in the footer of all our future invoices.

New Bank Account Details:

Account holder: Light Guide Optics International Ltd

Bank Name: "Swedbank" AS

BIC/SWIFT: HABALV22

Bank address: Balasta dambis 15, Riga, LV-1048, Latvia

Multicurrency Account Number: LV33 HABA 0551 0523 0715 8

Continued Use of SEB Bank Account:

Please note that our existing account with SEB bank remains active and can be used for payments as before. This additional banking option is intended to provide more flexibility and convenience in managing your transactions with us.

Attached Documentation:

For your reference and records, we have attached a confirmation letter from Swedbank verifying our new account.

We understand that changing payment arrangements can require some adjustments, and we appreciate your cooperation and understanding as we make this transition. Our team is committed to making this process as smooth as possible for you.

Should you have any questions or need further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact our CFO Gunta Ivdre, gunta.ivdre@lightguide.com, phone number: +371 65307316.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter and for your continued trust in Light Guide Optics International Ltd. We look forward to serving you with even greater efficiency through our new banking partnership.

Warm regards,

Daumants Pfafrods
